

Lansing Wolves Jr. A Hockey Club

GAME RECAP

December 4, 2017

FROM: Mark Lawrence

CONTACT: Mark Lawrence: Head Coach

LANSING WOLVES WEEKEND RECAP: DEC 1ST & 2ND

The Bus Keeps Rolling-

The Lansing Wolves kept the wheels turning this weekend. In sweeping a weekend set with the Toledo Cherokee. On Friday night the Wolves simply caught fire in manhandling the home squad by a 9-1 blitz attack win. Leading the goal scoring was South Lyon's Garrett Weyh notching 2 goals while also chipping in with 2 assists. Macomb's Jake Deratany also had 2 goals while also notching 2 assists, Adding more offense was Clio's Brendan Smith in a smart 1 goal 3 assist effort. Saginaw's Brendan Ashley had another strong game with a solid 1 goal 2 assist game. Other goal scorers were Big Rapid's Garrett Daum, Lansing's Michael Schramm and certainly last but not least Milford's Michael Osinski (his first junior goal) adding key assists came from many sources Clarkston native Mac Diver 2 assists, 2 assists from Schramm, Helpers from Las Vegas's Cameron Zucker, Dimondale's Ryan Weaver, Caledonia's Brenden Eichelbarger and finally another rock solid effort on the backend from Novi's Sean Finstrom in goals stopping 24 shots thrown his way.

Saturday turned out to be a different type of clash with a low scoring tense hard checking battle. Give our kids credit as they played a very solid disciplined effort in winning this hard fought tilt by a 3-1 count. Leading the way was Smith on a power play, Schramm and finally empty netter by Weyh sealing this extremely hard and needed win. Adding helpers came from Diver, Smith, Weyh, Lansings Noah Pipper, Riga Latvia's Devids Jurinenocks and assistant captain Marshall's Jake Redman . Manning the pipes again being his usual solid self was Finstrom in stopping all but 1 of the 24 shots in the win on net.

The Wolves continue enjoying the comforts of The Summit with two more NA3HL tilts with a Friday night puck drop @ 7:30pm against the visiting Metro Jets. Then come right back on an expected battle Saturday with these same Toledo Cherokee puck drop @ 7:30pm and as always GO WOLVES.

Wolves Record: 10-11-1-2