

Lansing Wolves Jr. A Hockey Club

LANSING WOLVES GAME RECAP

Wolves Final Weekend and Going to the Big Dance-

The Lansing Wolves completed the final weekend by splitting with the Pittsburgh Vengeance. The Friday night affair was a victory for the Wolves winning by a 6-2 count. Leading the way was the Las Vegas alum Cam Zucker with a 2 goal effort, Brandon Ashley 2 goals and single tallies from Blake Siewertsen (with 0.2 seconds left no less) and Brendan Smith. Keying in the assist column was the ever improving Carter Stenslund with 2 helpers, the veteran Mike Forman with 2 and single apples from Bear Ross, Michael Osinski, Garret Weyh, that Smith kid, Jake Redman, Mac Diver, Chris Seelye and rounding out the onslaught Ryan Weaver. In his emergency debut Okemos native Gabe Rosek was rock solid in stopping 30 shots tossed his way.

Saturdays contest turned out to be anticlimactic as the Wolves went down by a 8-4 score. The goal scorers were lead by Smith, Weyh, Ashley and Jake Deratany. The 16 year old Rosek turned in another solid outing regardless of the score by stopping another 30 shots sent to his direction.

The Wolves embark on the big dance this coming weekend by playing this same group from Pittsburgh with game times as follows

Friday, March 16th 7:20pm @ Pittsburgh
Saturday, March 17th 1:10pm @ Pittsburgh
Sunday, March 18th 11:40pm @ The Summit

Pittsburgh games are at the Alpha Ice Center in Harmarville, PA

With an extreme dislike for each other these 2 squads will surely be in a battle. Don't miss out on this sure to be entertaining series. All games are available on Hockey TV.

Yea Baby Playoff Hockey Wolves Style and as always GO WOLVES